

Double Stop Bends - Jody Worrell

Double Stop Bends is a free video lesson by Jody Worrell that covers a great blues guitar lick. The cool part about this lick is that we'll be using both our ring and little finger to bend at the same time. However, the ring finger will be playing a whole step bend, and the little finger will play a half step bend. We'll also use the fingers of our right hand to play this lick as opposed to using a pick. Practice with the video, tab, and free jam tracks below to really learn how to play this lick.
